

Food Prep & Baking Job Training Program Eligibility Requirements

The Bread Project provides an intensive, five-week, 150-hour Food Prep & Baking Job Training & Placement Program with 10-12 participants in each class. The Program is taught Monday through Friday, 9am-3:30pm, and is a balanced mix of a) core food prep and baking knowledge and skills taught in-kitchen (hard skills), b) customized process skills for job readiness and employment (soft skills), and c) job search and placement assistance. Training is FREE for low/no-income residents of the Bay Area who face barriers to employment. On completing the Program, graduates receive a Certificate of Completion, a ServSafe Certification from the State of California, and 12 months of follow up job placement assistance and support.
